

CBA/DBA/CBA-CLE Nominating Committee

Confidentiality Policy

All information provided by applicants or nominators to any nominating committee within the CBA, the DBA, and CBA-CLE, including, without limitation, nominating committees for any board, section, or committee, is done so for the sole purpose of having the nominating committee's members consider the information in determining what individual or individuals will be selected to fill any open board, section, or committee position or positions. Nominating committee members shall keep all information provided to them by applicants or nominators strictly confidential and utilize that information only for such purpose and consideration.