First Judicial District announces Jefferson County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The First Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet via videoconference on May 11, 2021, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Jefferson County. The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Hon. Thomas E. Vance. The vacancy will occur on July 1, 2021.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Jefferson County at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado. The current annual salary for this position is $165,795. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Monica M. Márquez, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the court executive, Gail Pickarts, 100 Jefferson County Pkwy., Golden, CO 80401. Applications also are available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. April 26, 2021. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than 4 p.m. April 19, 2021.

The members of the nominating commission for the First Judicial District are: John G. Lee and Jeanie Vela, both of Arvada; Nicole Dews and Laura Martinez, both of Lakewood; Allison Zinn of Littleton; and Linza Douglas and Danielle Radovich Piper, both of Golden.
