

ADR Section - CBA Leadership Application

ADR-CBA...LEADING THE WAY!

Now is a great time to be a leader in the Alternative Dispute Resolution Section of the Colorado Bar Association (“ADR-CBA”)! Our leaders have been from diverse backgrounds, locations, and populations. This diversity and inclusivity has been evident over the last few years because the ADR-CBA has taken profound steps to engage members across the state and in underrepresented communities to serve in leadership positions.

This work toward greater inclusivity, however, is far from complete. We continue to recruit leaders who represent all members of the ADR-CBA and to develop a leadership pipeline comprised of members from a wide range of positions, personal histories, identities, and geographic representation. As amended in 2020, the ADR’s Mission & Values Statements demonstrate our commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusivity:

The ADR seeks inclusion and equity through broad recognition of diversity, including, but not limited to race, ethnicity, national origin, socio-economic status, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, age, veteran status, geography, political beliefs, ideology, spiritual beliefs, years of practice, and practice settings. We prioritize broad, equitable, and inclusive participation in our membership and leadership. The CBA is dedicated to promoting attorneys of all backgrounds, identities, and circumstances through the removal of barriers to engagement and leadership.

Eligible applicants for CBA Leadership are:

- ADR-CBA members in good standing.
- Interested in serving in a leadership role for the CBA.
- Experienced and engaged in areas important to the operation and long-term success of the CBA.
- Individuals who possess qualities reflecting integrity, independence, leadership, good judgment, wisdom, an inquiring mind, vision, a proven record of accomplishment, and an ability to work well with others.
